

Step 3: Dental

Taking care of your oral health plays an important role in your overall health. Our dental options include a direct bill feature, so you only have to pay your portion.

Your option

Boost your Personal Health Plan by adding Essential or Enhanced dental coverage.

Your coverage

Each option covers eligible expenses up to the annual maximum of:

0–12 mos	13–24 mos	25 mos +
$600/person per year	$900/person per year	$1,200/person per year (Essential dental only)

Essential dental

The Essential dental add-on is best if you only want coverage for basic dental maintenance. Eligible expenses are covered at 70% for the first year and 80% for subsequent years.

The plan also covers emergency treatment of the above services while temporarily outside BC or the Yukon.

Eligible expenses include items such as cleanings, fillings, scaling, examinations, polishing, x-rays, routine extractions and recall visits twice per year.

Enhanced dental

Want more dental coverage? Our Enhanced dental add-on includes basic and complex dental treatments.

	0–12 mos	13–24 mos	25 mos +
Basic services	70%	80%	80%
Endodontics*	70%	80%	80%
Major restorative services†	50%	50%	50%
Complete or partial dentures	50%	50%	50%
Orthodontics‡	50%	50%	50%

Major restorative services, dentures and orthodontics have a combined annual maximum of $500/person.

*e.g., root canals.

†e.g., crowns, inlays onlays, veneers, posts and fixed bridge restorations.

‡e.g., braces — children only, lifetime maximum $1,000.

To be eligible for this plan you:

- Have been covered under your Canadian group plan for the same benefits for at least 6 continuous months
- Must apply within 60 days of the date on which your group coverage was cancelled

The conversion plan is not available when transferring between individual plans. If at a later date, you transfer to an individual plan, we require a new application and medical condition declaration. If you have no pre-existing condition(s), it may be more economical for you to opt for our standard Health & Dental plan.
